STATE PAIR .- Mr. Loomis, the Socretary of the State Bourd of Agriculture, informs us that extensive preparations are being made for the holding of the State Fair next fall at Fort Wayne. The site selected for the holding of the fair is one of the most pleasant and easy of accees adjoining the city, and the grounds are being fitted up in the best style. The work will be completed in the course of a few weeks, and everything augurs a most successful session. The Board will spare neither pains or money to make the coming exhibition in all respects the equal to any similar one ever held in the State.
